This latest series of presentations,
from this highly acclaimed photographer,
continues with

“A Window on the World”

Ever wondered where the Norse landed on our shores, or what a beach hut costs, or even where those lemons on the fruiterer’s stall come from? Then find out here!

“A Window on the World”

This personally presented show lasts for two hours including a fifteen minute coffee/tea break after the first hour.

With the Hebrides way behind us our journey continues to new lands and peoples. From medieval castles to sun kissed olive groves of the Mediterranean, places rich in history and culture with a drop of human madness thrown in.

I supply all the equipment required, even a screen if needed.

If not already booked, I could come along at just a few hours notice.

If you would like more information on this or any of the previous presentations, “An Eye on the Hebrides”, “The Island Dream”, “Hebridean Hopscotch” or “Another World, Another View” then do telephone me.
